Buyers' war savings stamps and their stamps at the local postoffice took out $15,440 worth of stamps. According to the list of sales to be forwarded to Bridgeport, headquarters for the state of Connecticut, relative to the amount of sales at the local postoffice during March, there were 291 war savings stamps sold and 287 thrift stamps. War savings stamps were selling at $4.14 last month, making the total sales in these stamps $15,440. Thrift stamps selling for 25 cents each brought in $146.70. The total amount of sales during March aggregated $256.25 more than the February sales.

Miss Manola Wilson of Scotland has returned home after a week's visit with friends in Boston.

Mrs. Mary Buckley, her daughters, Catherine and Mary, and sons, William and Arthur, were Easter guests at the home of Mrs. Buckley's mother, Mrs. Dennis Murphy of Scotland. Lightning and thunder came with the rain storm of Monday, although they lasted but a short while.

The work of putting the streets in the hill section into better condition has occupied the attention of the street department employees during the past few days and trucks are being used in the work. A street harrow hauled by a truck is being used to level the roadbed and clear off the stones washed into the road during the thaw. Following the repairing of these roads the work of building new roadbeds on several of the city streets is to be undertaken.

Within a week after the campaign-ers for the budget of 1920 for the mission work of the First Congregational church had started their canvass, $1,750 had been raised and several committees were still to be heard from. Following the announcement of the success of the drive at a recent meeting of the church it was learned that $2,434 had been received in money or pledges. For the church budget of $7250 there remains but about $369 to be raised and several people have not yet reported.

Wednesday night the Socialitas, a young women's society of the First Congregational church, will meet at the church house where a supper will be served. Following the supper the members are to be addressed by Mrs. Abby G. Willard of Colchester on Woman's Share in the Inter-church World Movement. Mrs. Willard recently attended a woman's conference held at Washington, D. C., and many of the points discussed at that meeting will be summed up in her talk. Although the meeting is for the Socialitas, the members of that society have extended invitations to local young women to attend.

The meeting of the Willimantic Woman's club is to be held in the High School hall this Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and an invitation has been extended by this organization to all the school children of the city. The afternoon speaker is to be Miss Mabel Powers, the story teller of Chautauque, N. Y. Miss Powers will be in Indian costume and will have many delightful Indian stories to tell. Her subject will be What the Indian Gave to Us. Stories the Indians Tell Their Children can also be learned by those attending.

Mrs. Ann K. Bailey, 78, widow of Frederick Bailey, died early Monday morning at her home in Jackson street. Mrs. Bailey had been in failing health for some time. She was born in Manchester, England, in 1842, the daughter of John and Mary Clegg Kennedy. She is survived by an adopted daughter, Mrs. Joseph Goldsborough of this city.

One of the biggest social affairs of the season was held Monday night when the East Side Council, No. 14, K. of C., under the auspices of Company B, C. S. G., gave their 29th annual concert and ball at the state armory on Pleasant street. The hall had been prettily decorated for the event. Monday ball, the color scheme being a likeness of spring, sprays of green and clusters of rose-mingled in with draped American flags. The balcony was also decorated and fastened on the balcony rail where three shields of white upon which were inscribed in red letters "K. of C." Placed along three sides of the hall were booths where various parties were entertained between the numbers.

The musical part of the programme began shortly after 8:30 and continued until 9 o'clock, the majestic orchestra, Director George W. Hickey, furnishing the music for the entertainment and dance. At 9 o'clock partners named for the grand march and nine dances were enjoyed before intermission. During intermission refreshments were served, and several musical numbers rendered by the orchestra. Dancing was enjoyed, following intermission and "Good Night All" was heard in the early morning hours of today (Tuesday). The Knights on the reception committee were Daniel P. Dunn, Holmias Dion, Edward Ottensmeyer.

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy the childhood days, you must keep your body free from poisonous wastes. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effect. Take one nightly and note results. They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually, 10c and 25c.

John W. Moran, T. Frank Cunningham, Michael Grady, James F. Two-mey, Thomas Murray, Daniel Cronin, E. F. Casey, Joseph Cotter, John Riley, James H. Maxwell, John Morrison, James Lynch, J. M. Bransfield, James Abenival and Francis Moriarty. Robert Flynn filled the position of floor director and had for his aides William Connaughton, James J. Lee, Frank Hevlin, and Conrad Dubau. Professor Bennett acted as prompter.

Emil J. Koshler, a farmer of Coventry, recently had an annoying experience on the state road between his home and South Coventry station. He left his home with a load of wood and all went well until he reached the neighborhood of Lake Wanganung when suddenly one of the wheels of his wagon broke through the road and it was impossible for him to get it out with the load of wood he was carrying. His load at the time consisted of foot length pieces of wood and it was necessary for him to take off half this load, carry the other half for nearly one-half a mile, dump this and return for the half left in the road and then drive back to the other half and load this on again. When the price of wood is considered when Mr. Koshler sold his wood for $12 per cord he was still somewhat behind the game as one day, from 1 a. m. until after dark, had been required to deliver the wood. The blame for this accident was placed upon the company which recently had an underground telephone system installed between Boston and New York. The heavy five-ton trucks used in installing this system had broken up the road and the new state roads leading out of Coventry.

What Would Happen?

Oil and bituminous coal are the two chief items of raw materials used in the manufacture of artificial gas.

Suppose they should cost so much that 1,166 artificial gas companies in the United States could no longer operate without huge losses.

Suppose these companies were forced to close down their plants and to shut off the supply of gas for even a single day.

What would happen?

Immediately the lives of more than fifty million persons in America who depend upon gas for cooking, heating, lighting, and industrial purposes would be vitally affected.

Their homes would be darkened at night. Their meals would be served uncooked or cold. Their rooms would be cheerless.

The bath would become an icy plunge. Laundry and kitchen work would be drudgery. And outside the home thousands of big industrial plants would be crippled.

Weigh these facts carefully and you will realize what a tremendous part artificial gas plays in modern civilization.

It is the very life blood of 4,600 of our most prosperous cities, towns and villages.

It is a necessity!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Y. M. C. A. Auxiliary Meeting.

A large attendance of Y. M. C. A. auxiliary members is expected. This afternoon at the April meeting which is to be held at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Edw. D. Fuller, 283 Broadway. The speaker will be Captain Alexander of the Submarine Base, and Mrs. Russell Baird will sing.

Strand.

The Strand has arranged a special programme for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, which is considered the best yet ever seen in Norwich. The Strand completes in quality not quantity. The Strand is featuring two of their acts. The Merok Sisters are seen in a European aerial novelty, the first time ever seen in the United States. Lilies of the Valley, a comedy trio are seen in some fine harmony and funny talk. This act came direct from a big run in New York and is sure to please. Hanney and Francis are seen in a comedy and singing act which was well liked. They are full of good songs and stories and know how to sing. Rose Miller, the singing nightingale, sang a few of some picked musical hits that were so well liked that she had to return twice and sing some more. This is the best show the Strand had. "Olive Tell" was shown in "The Trap" taken from the celebrated stage play of the same name. It is a very fine drama, staged in the northwest and was well liked by the large audience. A Gaiety weekly closes this fine show at the Strand. The Strand wishes to call your attention to the fact that the manager has made a special trip to New York and has succeeded in getting "Sweet Sixteen," with ten people, handsome girls, beautiful costumes, special scenery, lots of girls, talented stars, funny comedians. A miniature musical comedy, for Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Also some D. W. Griffiths pictures coming soon.

Breed Theatre.

Today is your last opportunity to see Anita Stewart in her latest production, "The Kingdom of Dreams." This picture is adapted from Louise Provost's remarkable novel of the same name published in the People's Home Journal. It is a perfect picture, perfect in every way. Probably the most auspicious cast ever assembled for the production of one motion picture was brought together by Director Marshall Nieke. Among those who appear in the cast are: Tully Marshall, Anna Q. Nilsson, Kathryn Williams, Spottiswood Allen, Ramon Novarro, Wesley Barry, Thomas Holding and Edwin B. Tilton.

Other pictures on the bill include a two part Century comedy entitled "Light House," a talking picture, and the Pathe News.
